

Elgar Poetry Evening

Saturday 11 November 2017 at 7.30 in aid of the Elgar Festival 2018 at the Elgar School of Music

16-21 Deansway Worcester WR1 2ES

(next to Huntingdon Hall)

Hear four local poets read their own work and poems that inspired Elgar

Nina Lewis, Worcestershire Poet Laureate Lesley Ingram, Herefordshire Poetry Society organiser

Peter Sutton, author of the play Elgar and Alice

Michael Wyndham Thomas, poet, novelist, reviewer for the Times Literary Supplement

Tickets £10, to include interval refreshments, from the Elgar School of Music 01905 28613

enquiries@elgarschoolofmusic.org.uk

Credit card payments will incur a 40p additional charge to cover costs

The Elgar Festival of musical and other events aims to bring Elgar to a wider audience and is supported by the Elgar School of Music, the English Symphony Orchestra,
The Firs (Birthplace of Edward Elgar) and the Elgar Society